Mission Arlington in the Spring

Volume 10, Issue 2

Tillie Burgin

As we open the mail and receive your donations, we thank God for you.

Your gifts of money, clothing or furniture help in so many ways -- it puts food on a table or gets furniture into a home that has "nothing."

We hear comments regularly from the volunteers delivering furniture: "They have nothing -- just blankets on the floor to sleep on." "We could not get into the apartment because the children were jumping up and down about the bed and television we were delivering to them."

Recently we saw the excitement on a young girl's face when she came into the clothing room and saw a formal. She said, "If I could have that dress maybe I could go to the prom for my school." Thank you, one and all.

I know you give so generously. Our gratitude for you is more than you can possibly imagine. One lady wrote: "I love what you guys do for the community to bring everyone together. My family struggles every day and knowing that there are people like y'all makes it a more comforting community. Thank you, Mission Arlington." This note was meant for each one of you.

Bless You And Thanking God This Day For You.
