Ezra Dedicates the Temple

Last week we learned that after the people of Israel had been prisoners for 70 years God freed the Israelites. Then God used Cyrus, King of Persia, to build His temple. Ezra taught the people about God's Word. He prayed and asked God's forgiveness for their sins.

Memory Verse:

God's grace has saved you because of your faith in Christ.
Your salvation doesn't come from anything you do.
It is God's gift.
It is not based on anything you have done. No one can brag about earning it.

Begin with Prayer

When Darius was king of Persia of the province of the Medes (Ezra 4:5; 6:2), Tattenai, governor of the land west of the Euphrates River, and some friends asked the Jews who told them to rebuild the temple. But God was watching over them so they didn't have to stop their work. They sent a report to King Darius. (Ezra 5:3-5)

King Darius made a search in the records of Babylon. They found a scroll that contained the order given by King Cyrus. (Ezra 6:1-2)

Goals

1. Understand that King Darius of Persia helped the Jews with the rebuilding of the temple.
2. Recognize that King Darius told Tattenai to help the Jews.
3. Learn that the Jews finished the temple just as God commanded.
4. Understand that God had freed the Jews from captivity.

King Cyrus told the Jews to rebuild the temple. He said, "Rebuild the temple.... The temple must be 90 feet high and 90 feet wide. Its walls must have three layers of large stones. They must also have a layer of beautiful wood. Use money from the royal treasures to pay for everything." (Ezra 6:3-4 NIV) King Cyrus also had the gold and silver that belonged in the house of God returned to the Jews. (Ezra 6:5)

King Darius told Tattenai and his friends to leave the Jews alone. He told them not to try stop the work on God's temple. King Darius told them to help the Jews. The expenses were to be paid from the royal treasures and the money collected from the people who lived west of the Euphrates. (Ezra 6:6-8)

King Darius further instructed Tattenai:

"Don't fail to give the priests in Jerusalem what they ask for each day. Give them what they need.... so they can offer sacrifices that please the God of heaven. And I want them to pray that things will go well for me and my sons." (Ezra 6:9-10 NIV)

"The elders of the Jews continued to build the temple. They enjoyed

Memory verse for younger children

Salvation ... is God's gift. Ephesians 2:8

Learning Activities

- Memory verse activity — Make scrolls. Write the Bible verse on the scroll.
- Test your memory — Have several pictures of the temple. Write the names of key characters in the story on the pictures. Hold up the pictures as you tell the story. Allow the children to retell the story.
- Taste activity — The Israelites had to travel far to go home. Make sandwiches for a snack.
- Think about it — Haggai and Zechariah encouraged the people as they were building the temple. Talk about the importance of finding encouragement in God's Word.

Talk about ways to be an encourager.

The Israelites continued rebuilding even when they had opposition. Talk about the importance of obeying God even when we are faced with opposition.

- Touch activity — Salvation is God's gift. Wrap some small gift boxes with candy in them. Ask the children to take the boxes. Talk about how salvation is a gift we must receive.

Bring building blocks to make a building.

Cyrus and Darius were kings that were used by God to rebuild the temple.

Make crowns and decorate them.

- Run and play — Hide a scroll. Have the children find it. Talk about the decree made by Cyrus and how Darius made sure it was carried out.
- Listen — As the children take time for silence, remind them that God wants us to obey.
- Sing — Sing "Work for the Night is Coming," "Here I Am to Worship," or another song related to the story.
- Reach out — During class, pray (by name) for kids that did not come today. Ask the children to go with you to deliver the handouts to those who were absent. Take a scroll to them. Pray with the children who were absent. Encourage them to read the story in the Bible.
